BLOSSOMS working with Universiti Teknologi Malaysia (UTM) to improve science and math education
Engineering Systems Division

September 22, 2011

MIT is working with Universiti Teknologi Malaysia (UTM) to provide programs to assist the Malaysian government in improving science and mathematics education — and make it more appealing and interesting to students.

Funding clean-energy solutions
MIT's Clean Energy Prize awards more than $300,000 to support green startups and technologies.

Cleaner energy, warmer climate?
